

A SHARED DISH FOR YOUR BLOCK OF FLATS IT'S ON THE HOUSE

Getting Sky's top-quality digital TV for the flats you manage has never been easier or more affordable. Sky's Free Shared Dish is the communal system that ticks all the boxes:

- Free standard installation. As long as just four flats choose to subscribe, we'll install the dish for free
- Easy process. Our specialist, approved installers will handle everything, sign up your residents and give you a simple, high-quality solution that's right for your block
- One single dish in a discrete location. That's all you need to give Sky TV to your whole block, and to be ready for the digital switchover
- Quality entertainment. Your residents will have the choice of a huge range of channels offering a variety of quality programmes – all with first-rate digital reception
